Denver Metro Chamber Leadership Foundation program receives Daniels Fund grant

DENVER—The Denver Metro Chamber Leadership Foundation will expand its resources for collegiate leaders and grow its pipeline of community-focused leadership thanks to a $150,000 three-year grant awarded by the Daniels Fund.

The grant will benefit the Leadership Foundation's Colorado Leadership Alliance – which brings together collegiate leadership programs from across the state for an annual summit and connects students to mentors who are Leadership Foundation alumni.

“This grant ensures we are working toward our mission of educating and inspiring community leaders,” said Leadership Foundation Executive Director Dan Lewis. “We want to give people the opportunity to lead from where they stand, and the Daniels Fund is helping us ensure we are empowering students with the leadership skills they need for their campus and beyond.”

The Daniels Fund, established by cable television pioneer Bill Daniels, is a private charitable foundation dedicated to making life better for the people of Colorado, New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming through its grants program, scholarship program and ethics initiative.
