PLC Assignment One: My User's Manual

Think about how much easier relationships would be if people just came with a user's manual that told you the things they liked and disliked. Wouldn't things be much easier if people just told you how they like to be treated?

For your first Positive Leadership Crew (PLC) meeting, discuss your answers to these questions:

- The things I most enjoy working on involve...
- What people can always rely on me to provide include...
- When I am at my best I am...
- Some areas where I may struggle are...
- What really makes me trust people is...
- I appreciate it when the people I work with...
- The kinds of people that complement my strengths...
- What constitutes work well done is...
- The best way to share feedback with me is...
- What makes me feel engaged is...
